

Style Weddings – Elite Events Bali

Real weddings • FEATURE

lanterns were hung from a nearby tree that sheltered the venue.

That evening, instead of cutting the usual wedding cake, Lucas and Erin started the festivities by breaking a pinata. For favours, the couple gave guests a batik sarong each.

The newly-weds stayed in Bali for 10 days after the wedding. "We visited places like Amankila on the east coast and Ubud. Lucas also surprised me with a helicopter trip back to Seminyak for the final three days of our honeymoon. It was wonderful!" beams Erin. 📸

244
more weddings

When it came to their wedding destination, Bali was an obvious choice for Lucas and Erin. "We spent our first holiday together in Bali, and we loved it so much that we spent a week there before we moved to Singapore. Lucas also proposed to me there, on my birthday!" says Erin.

The couple engaged Elite Events Bali to realise their dream wedding. "Libby (the event planner) was fantastic. She coordinated all the thematic details — from the décor, flowers and entertainment to catering for the wedding," says Erin.

The couple chose a "Hollywood Art Deco" theme in black and white: "I wanted the bridesmaids to wear a colour that they would feel beautiful and comfortable in, and we decided that black would be best. The theme extended from that."

On the wedding day, the Atas Ombak private villa was a vision of glamour. Tables were covered with black linen and set with shiny mirror centrepieces, Art Deco-style silver frames, blooms in tiny vases, and candles. Each place-setting also featured a glass bowl with a wish card and bracelet favour. To create a romantic ambience,

HOLLYWOOD GLAMOUR

BY Nicolette Ong PHOTOGRAPHY Rory Daniels WEDDING PLANNER Elite Events Bali

newly-weds
Lucas & Erin
Sandra celebration
Party at Atas
Ombak Villa,
Batu Belig, Bali
the me
Hollywood Art Deco

FAB IDEA!

The couple set up a photo booth with a remote-controlled camera for guests to have fun. "Many of our favourite pictures from the wedding were taken in that booth," says Erin.

Hollywood Glamour

By Nicolette Ong Photography Rory Daniels Wedding Planner Elite Events Bali

When it came to their wedding destination, Bali was an obvious choice for Lucas and Erin. “We spent our first holiday together in Bali, and we loved it so much that we spent a week there before we moved to Singapore. Lucas also proposed to me there, on my birthday!” says Erin.

The couples engaged Elite Events Bali to realize their dream wedding. “Libby (the wedding planner) was fantastic. She coordinated all the thematic details – from the décor, flowers and entertainment to catering for the wedding,” says Erin.

The couple chose a “Hollywood Art Deco” theme in black and white: “I wanted the bridesmaid to wear a colour that they would feel beautiful and comfortable in, and the theme extended from that.”

On the wedding day, the Atas Ombak private villa was a vision of glamour. Tables were covered with black linen and set with shiny mirror centerpieces. Art Deco-style silver frames, blooms in tiny vases, and candles. Each place-setting also featured a glass bowl with a wish card and bracelet favour. To create romantic ambience, lantern were hung from a nearby tree that sheltered the venue.

That evening, instead of cutting the usual wedding cake, Lucas and Erin started the festivities by breaking a piñata. For favours, the couples gave guest a batik sarong each.

The newly-weds stayed in Bali for 10 days after the wedding. “We visited places like Amankila on the east coast and Ubud. Lucas also surprised me with helicopter trip back to Seminyak for the final three days of our honeymoon. It was wonderful!” Beams Erin

FAB IDEA!

The couple set up a photo booth with a remote-controlled camera for guest to have fun. “May of our favourite pictures from the wedding were taken in that booth,” says Erin

Newly-weds

Lucas & Erin Sandra

Celebration

Party at Atas Ombak Villa, Batu Belig, Bali

Theme

Hollywood Art Deco